History Matters...

Museums fill a role like no other in ensuring significant events, people, concepts, and artifacts are preserved for future generations.

Have you enjoyed a program, visited an exhibit, or learned something new about where you live? Why not become a member. Your support helps us continue to preserve our region's unique history and bring enjoyable and educational programs to the community.

Want to know how your contribution is used? Visit our web site to read the museum's Annual Report. <http://westernillinoismuseum.org>.
