And make us happy!

We have something to make you happy

Illinois has a rich folk and ethnic music heritage that seldom receives the attention it deserves—until now! The five CD compilation, Folksongs of Illinois, curated by historian and musician Bucky Halker, is an eclectic mix of blues, gospel, polka, reels, spirituals, corridos, and Indian drumming to name a few!

Our other gift to you

Membership with the Western Illinois Museum is the gift of preserving our treasures for future generations. With a $50 membership we will give you a gift- the five CD set, Folksongs of Illinois. Become a member, renew or up your current membership level and this eclectic compilation is yours!
